Since, the Surgeon General has identified tobacco use as the numbp-r one preventable cause of death in the United States, and the @tional Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reports that tobacco use kills more Americans than motor vehicle crashe-v, Art)S, cocaine ust., heroin use, homicide, and suicide combined: and

Sfto, a survey by the Tompkins-Seneco-Tiogo SOCES between 1996 and 1998 of students in grades 6 through 12 found that 54% had tried cigarette smoking: 35% had smoked a whole cigarette before they were 15 years old,, and 19% had already tried to quit: and

Since, a survey of 82 retail tobacco stores in Tompkins County in 1998 by the I)ivision of Environmental Health revealed that 52 (63%) maintained self-service of toba@co products,- and

Sloce, New York State and Federal laws restrict the use of tobacco products in public places ar#d work sites and the sale of tobacco products to minors under the @ of eighteem and these restrictions are enforced by the Tompkins County Health Department through the Division of Environmental Health: and despite these restrictions, ininors continue to start smokiru3: and

Sime, self-service of tobacco products implies the some level of consumer safety and acceptance as other self-service products such as gum and candy, and restricting self-service will reduce tninors'access to tobacco products by requiring sales to be made by personal transactions; and

Since, @ Board of Representatives of Tompkins County believes restricting the self-service sales and open displays of tobacco products will promote the health, sof cty, and welfare of residents of Tompkins County under the age of eighteen;

On June 2. 19915, the Tompkins County Board of Representatives passed Local Low 3 Regulating the Self Service Sale of Tobacco Products. The Low states that "no person, business, or tobacco retailer shall sell, permit to be said. offer for sale or display any tobacco product by means of self-service. merchwwislrq.' Furtherwre, -any person, business, tobacco retailer, or owner, mamw or "rotor of any establishment subject to this local law who falls to comply with any @sion of this local low shall be guilty of a vlolation...OW be subject to a fine of up to $1,000 for a first violation and a fine of up to $2,5W for a second or succeeding violation or Imprisonment of not new than 15 days or by both such fine and imprisonment.' This local law takes effect September 1, 1"8 and will be enforced by police officerx, peace officer-x wW the Tompkf's County Health bapartment.
